

are pleased to present a lunchtime briefing and discussion with

Mr Rob Nicholl
Chief Executive Officer
Australian Office of Financial Management (AOFM)

The changing issuance and debt management landscape -
What matters most next?

For some years the AOFM has undertaken increasing issuance tasks. These have been approached with a focus on broadening operational flexibility while reducing debt portfolio risks. How will the fiscal outlook and the potential for changing financial market conditions impact considerations and choices for the year ahead? Can the investor base be assumed to remain unchanged and if not what, if anything, could that mean for issuance patterns ahead?

Rob Nicholl

Mr Nicholl was appointed Chief Executive Officer of the Australian Office of Financial Management in January 2011. He has extensive public and financial policy experience having had a number of senior executive appointments in the Tasmanian Treasury and Department of Infrastructure, Energy and Resources. His public and financial policy knowledge is broad and during his eight year appointment as a Tasmanian Treasury Deputy Secretary he gained significant commercial and regulatory experience taking a lead role in major whole-of-government projects. In 2000, Mr Nicholl worked as Senior Advisor to the then Tasmanian Deputy Premier. Prior to joining the public service, he spent several years in academia as a research fellow and lecturing in economics. He has worked as a consultant and has a Bachelor of Economics from the University of Tasmania and a Masters of Arts from the University of Alberta.
